HOME CONSULTATION FAQs

What is the Home Consultation?

The Home Consultation is a two-hour interior design consultation in your own home.

Who can benefit from this service?

This is ideal for you if:

- You are after practical tips to maximise the appeal and functionality of your space;
- You'd like help pulling off a certain room in your home;
- You need advice on colour palettes, décor, or window treatments;
- You are planning to undertake a larger redesign project and would like to find out more about the process.

What does the Home Consultation include?

- Client Questionnaire;
- Two hours of design advice on location;
- Report including all recommendations, ideas, etc. discussed during the meeting;
- Travel costs to and from location.

What can I expect from and during the consultation?

While every consultation varies depending on the needs of each client, your decorator will arrive at the scheduled time and after a brief introduction, the consultation is underway!

You can expect your decorator to

- ask lots of questions;
- walk through the space;
- take photographs and measurements;
- share contacts and information about preferred vendors;
- address your particular interior design needs and answer your questions.

What are some common themes to discuss during the meeting?

- Design styles and yours in particular;
- Colour palettes and/or window treatments;
- Décor and/or flooring;
- Placement of existing furniture, what to keep and what to buy new;
- Ideas on how to address certain obstacles in the space;
- Resources, online and brick and mortar stores;
- If you're planning a larger project, this serves as the starting point. You will find out about the redesign process and any related questions you may have.

How do I prepare for the Consultation?

Most importantly, ensure that you write down any specific questions and concerns prior to our meeting, as it is easy to get carried away with spontaneous design ideas and forget about them. If you have inspiration to share (photos, articles, etc), keep it handy! Please have your wifi password ready, thanks.

How much does the Home Consultation cost?

The 2- Hour Consultation is valued at Sfr. 295.-, this includes travel expenses and report. After the visit, your decorator will send you an invoice which is payable within ten working days via electronic transfer.

Anything else I need to know?

Yes. Your decorator will advise you when the consultation is coming to an end. Should you wish to extend the visit, the time is charged at Sfr. 75.- per half hour.

READY TO FALL IN LOVE WITH YOUR HOME?

I absolutely loved having you around and am already so happy with the initial modifications!
